I volunteer for Hospice, because I love that I am giving somebody the gift of sitting and listening to them.

Second favorite organization, if applicable, and why.

Blessings/Gifts you receive from doing this type of service.

How do you balance your busy daily life with this type of service

I set the time aside as a part of my day, in fact it is the highlight of my day.

Who or what inspires you to follow this volunteer path.

What inspires me is service.

Tell us a memorable story about your work (if applicable).

I visit a women in a nursing home, I showed up as usual on my appointed day, walked into her room and started talking to her we talked for a few minutes then she looked at me and said, "Am I suppose to know you." I told her that I was her hospice volunteer and that I visit every Monday. She said, I remember that somebody comes to visit me each week.

So you see she didn't remember my name, but I made an impression on her because I showed up every week to visit with her. That is why I visit, it makes a difference to them to have a visitor.
